

Too Late!!!

Much has been said on this subject by faithful preachers and teachers in the Lord's church, and much more needs to be said. Great illustrations have been given on this subject to try and wake us all up.

Words have been spoken that many of us will regret all the days of our lives. Once spoken, they cannot be recalled. One may apologize, repent and even be forgiven by those whom they have hurt. But those words are still out there in the minds of family, friends, and your own mind to haunt you perhaps for the rest of your life. And this is true also for deeds we have done, and think about this, for deeds we should have done but did not. Now it is too late for the past! But we have the present and future to do better with those words and deeds so we won't have to regret them later.

Now, for however long we have left in this world (James 4:14) we have the opportunity to restrain our tongues (James 3) and refrain from doing evil (1Peter 4:15). Let us resolve to speak as God instructs us through His Word (1 Peter 4:11) and resort to do good unto all men (Galatians 6:10; James 4:17).

Without a doubt the saddest "too late" scenario that could ever be imagined is for one to be lost in a devil's hell forever and ever without end. The many (Matthew 7:13,14), who will be there by their own choice, will forever remember the great many opportunities they circumvented in order to go to eternal torments (Matthew 25:46). Such as the wonderous love of God (John 3:16; Romans 5:8; I John 4:8), the plain rejection of truth (John 8:31,32), and the rejection of their Creator and Savior (Hebrews 1:2; John 12:48).

My friends, let it not be so for any of us. Obey the gospel before it is "too late" for you (2 Thessalonians 1:8,9). If you were once a faithful member of the church of Christ (Romans 16:16; Matthew 16:18) but have fallen away, please come back before it is forevermore "too late" (Acts 8:12-24). by Perry Sexton ♥

Rev. 21:8 "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

Rev. 20:15 "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."
